

WARNING

Below is another e-Mail scam. This one is obvious. It has typing mistakes, spelling mistakes, punctuation errors, and poor grammar.

HAPPY NEW YEAY!!!.

From: Mr. John Kevin
<jhkv7@gmail.com>
Add to Contacts

To:

From Mr. John Kevin.
African Development Bank (A.D.B)
Ouagadougou Burkina-Faso, West Africa.

Dear Friend,

i know that this message will come to you as a surprise. I am Mr John Kevin. The assistant director foreign remittance department African development bank (ADB) here in Ouagadougou Burkina Faso. I hope that you will not expose or betray this trust and confident that i am about to repose on you for the mutual benefit of our both families.

I need your urgent assistance in transferring the sum of ($15million) to your account within 14 banking days. This money has been dormant for years in our bank without claim. i want the bank to release the money to you as the nearest person to our deceased customer, the owner of the account died along with his supposed next of kin.

I don't want the money to go into our bank treasurer as an abandoned fund. So this is the reason why i contacted you so that the bank can release the money to you as the next of kin to the deceased customer. Please i would like you to keep this proposal as a top secret and delete it if you are not interested. If you are interested please reply me. Upon receipt of your reply, I will give you full details on how the business will be executed and also note that you will have 40% of the above mentioned sum if you agree to handle this business with me. i want you to reply me for more information. Or you call me for more explanation (+226-75744190)

If you are interested, fill this information and send it to

1. Your full name...
2. Your phone numbers...
3. Your age...
4. Your sex...
5. Your occupation...
6. Your country...

Best regards.
Mr John Kevin